Miss Black Iowa Walks for Peace in Wake of Recent Waterloo Murders

In wake of the recent double homicide in Waterloo, Miss Black Iowa Evette Fantroy will join a "Pray for Peace," walk hosted by SHOUT Ministries on Sunday November 11th. The Walk will begin at 2:30 p.m. from St. Paul United Methodist Church located at 207 W. Louise Street. The Community is invited to participate.

"I am proud to call Waterloo my home town," said Fantroy. "When we hear about violent crimes happening in our own community, it's important to take a stand and do what we can to bring about change. I believe that prayer changes things." Fantroy was crowned Miss Black Iowa USA 2008 on Saturday November 3, 2007 at Grand View College in Des Moines, Iowa.

The walk will last for one hour and several local churches will be represented. "We are very blessed to have Ms. Fantroy as part of our Ministry," said Chassidi Ferguson, President of SHOUT Ministries. "She truly shares our passion for this city and the people in it. We want to work together with leaders like Ms. Fantroy as well as the entire faith community in order to leave a legacy of peace in Waterloo."

SHOUT is an event production ministry that seeks to unite the Christian Community with Christ centered events and ongoing evangelism.
